Objective of 4-H Hippology Contest

The primary objective of the Hippology Contest is to provide, in a friendly but competitive setting, an opportunity for youth enrolled in 4-H to demonstrate the breadth of their knowledge and understanding of equine science and management, and in particular the practical application of this knowledge and skill. It is hoped that this contest will generate new friendships and be a rewarding experience for the contestants.

Rules and Regulations for State Hippology Contest

Contestants and Eligibility

1. Counties are invited to send teams of not more than four members. The lowest score in each phase will be dropped. Teams consisting of three members will have no alternate and all members' scores will count in determining individual and team awards. On teams consisting of four members, all will compete; however, the lowest score in each phase will be dropped.
2. Teams may be selected by any means appropriate to the county they represent and must be certified as eligible by the county or area Colorado State University Cooperative Extension office. The number of teams entered is at the county's discretion.
3. Contestants must be at least 14 years of age but not have reached their 19th birthday on January 1 of the current year.
4. Contestants must be enrolled in 4-H in the county or area they represent or combined in accordance with state 4-H policy prior to April 15 of the current year.
5. Contestants may not have participated in an official, post-secondary hippology contest nor have been in training in preparation for one of these contests. Any 4-H'er who has previously participated in the National 4-H Hippology contest as a team member or alternate is not eligible for this event.

7. Reference Material: The information covered in this contest may be found in one or more of the following publications:

 - Catalogs distributed by State Line Tack, PO Box 935, Brockport, NY 14420-0935 or (800)228-9208.
 - Grains, forages and feed preparations used in this contest will be representatives of feeds utilized in horse rations.

Contest officials may use other references if the information is considered to be current general horsemen's knowledge.

The Contest:

1. Examination Phase -- approximately 200 points -- This phase of the contest will include (but not limited to):
 - A. a written exam;
 - B. projected slides to be identified as to breed, color, color pattern, activity, proper appointments, and so forth;
 - C. anatomy which may include external, skeletal, internal organs, parts of gastrointestinal tract, male and female reproductive organs, detailed anatomy of the foot and detailed lower limbs.
2. Station Phase -- approximately 200 points -- This phase will consist of a series of stations or tables where at each, all contestants will respond to the requirements of the station. Examples of stations which may be used include (but are not limited to):
 - A. Identification of:
 1. Various types of saddles (actual or pictured) and parts of saddles.
 2. Tack, bits, bridles, horse shoes and parts of shoes.
 3. Tools and equipment, and assembly of specific parts of various pieces of equipment.

4. Grains and forages used in equine rations including various forms or methods of preparation.
 5. Internal and external parasites based on actual samples, pictures, life cycle charts and/or damage caused.
 6. Blemishes and unsoundness.
 7. Ages of equine based on teeth.
 8. Equine medications, immunizations, deworming products.
 - B. Use of pulse rate, respiration rate, temperature, dehydration, anemia, and so forth, to assess horse health.
 - C. Measurements such as, but not limited to, wither height, show size, girth, collar size, gullet width, seat length of saddle, and so forth, may be required.
3. Judging Phase -- 200 points -- Contestants will be required to place at least two (2) conformation classes and at least two (2) performance classes. Every effort will be made to use the same horses as are being used in the judging contest, with placings to be simultaneous with contestants in the judging contest, with the same official placings and cuts as apply to the judging contest. In extreme emergency, pictorial, video and/or movie classes may be used, in which case they would be especially prepared for the event.
 4. Team Problem -- approximately 200 points -- All teams will be presented with the same problem(s). Each team will have equal time to discuss among themselves the problem, immediately after which they will have to present an oral solution or series of suggested procedures relative to the problem. Each member of each team is encouraged to contribute to the oral presentation. Evaluation will be based on the understanding of the problem, completeness of the response, the probability of success of the solution or procedures, and the logic used in making the oral response. The official may ask questions of any or all of the team members to clarify the presentation.

Examples of team problems might include:

- A. Balancing a horse's ration.
- B. Farm management recommendations for specific (i.e., breeding, training, boarding, nursery, lay-up, and so forth) horse operations.
- C. Considerations for the establishment of a new horse facility (stable to be used for a specific purpose).
- D. Recommendations for selecting, locating and purchasing horses for specific uses.
- E. Behavior problems -- causes, management of and corrections.

- F. Training and conditioning programs -- equipment, schedules, methods, nutrition and problem avoidance.
 - G. Breeding and/or leasing contracts -- specific clauses for insurance, liability, payments, care, termination, transport, and so forth.
 - H. Teaching lessons in horse management (specific subject to be announced) to a group of 9- to 11-year-old beginner 4-H'ers -- where, how long, how much information, hands-on experiences, reinforcement and testing evaluation.
 - I. Explanation of use of and assembly of specific equipment.
 - J. Demonstrate skill or ability to use specific equipment.
- Team problem scores will not be included in determining the rank of individuals in the contest, but they will be added to the team scores of the other three phases to determine overall team standing.

Tie-Breaking:

All ties overall, individual and team, will be broken using the following sequence:

1. Written scores,
2. Slide scores,
3. Station scores,
4. Judging scores.

Ties within any phase are to be broken using the overall score first and then the same sequence as above. If further tie-breaking is needed, the scores at each station, in order may be used.

Competing in other National Contests

The State Champion Team from the state 4-H contest is expected to represent Colorado 4-H at the National 4-H Contest in January of the following year, in Denver (Western Round-up). Colorado 4-H members are not eligible to attend the Eastern National Horse contests in Louisville KY. However, the high team may select two additional national contests such as contests held by various breed associations. Please contact the contest organizers for further details and entry limitations. This team must designate the two contests they have chosen by July 1st of the year they win the state contest. The coach of the winning team is responsible to notify the coach of the second place team, the state 4-H Equine Extension Specialist and the State 4-H Contest Superintendent of their contest choices by July 1st.

The Reserve State Championship team from the state 4-H contest may represent Colorado 4-H at two National contests, after the State Champions have made their selection. The coach of the second place team is responsible to notify the coach of the third place team, the state 4-H Equine Extension Specialist and the State 4-H Contest Superintendent of their contest choices by July 10th.

The third high team from the state contest may represent Colorado 4-H at one National contest after being notified of the intentions of the state champions and Reserve Champions.

4-H team coaches are welcome to take their teams to any National contest where there is no limit imposed by the contest on the entry of 4-H teams by each state. In any contest where the entries of 4-H teams are limited, the above protocol regarding eligibility must be followed. Only when a contest has not been selected by the first three placing senior teams at the state contest, may unranked teams be entered to represent counties in the Colorado 4-H Program.

When considering out of state travel with junior 4-H members please check with your County Extension Agent on county and state policies. Generally, juniors do not go on national trips, unless there is a case where a junior is used to fill a senior team i.e. no other seniors from that county are available. However, coaches, parents and the junior member should give this decision great consideration, as the junior would then be subject to the same eligibility restrictions outlined below.

Only the team representing Colorado at the National 4-H contest at Western Round-up is ineligible for further competition as members of a 4-H Team at a 4-H county or state contest. Members may continue to compete, as individuals, in contests that include individual competitors or as members of national teams competing in breed association contests so that they may further develop their skills. Horse and Bowl is strictly a team events by nature and do not allow for individuals to compete.
